Villa Spalletti Trivelli

ROME, ITALY – The Spalletti Trivelli family is excited to launch the new Garden Suites of the villa opening in March 2012. The villa is situated among historic residences in the heart of Rome. Located in the building adjacent to the main villa, the two new suites are fully equipped and sumptuously furnished with original paintings and antiques from the Count's personal collection. Each suite is 80 to 100 square meters with two bedrooms (a double and a single), a spacious wooden kitchen and cozy sitting room, perfect for watching movies or relaxing with a good book. Guests enjoy their own private apartment in the former personal home of this aristocratic family, with every modern comfort such as air-conditioning, high-speed Internet access, plasma television with a large selection of international cable channels, independent telephone lines and a complimentary mini-bar. Each Garden Suite offers its own private terrace, steps from Quirinale Gardens and overlooking a tranquil, narrow street within the bustle of the Eternal City. Here, with a morning cup of coffee or at the end of the day, relax on the chaise lounge and garden sofa or dine at the outside table under a large umbrella. Perfect for families or long stays, the apartments provide all the comforts of home. Full access to the villa amenities is included: breakfast in the Sala Papier Peint, hosted bar, onsite gym, hammam and Turkish bath. Restoration and rejuvenation is only a step away at the boutique hotel's Wellness Centre, a delight to the senses, or browse the family library which has been recognized by the Ministry of National Heritage and Culture. ## Asia Transpacific Journeys

ASIA AND THE PACIFIC – A new era of optimism is dawning in Myanmar (Burma), akin to what Europe experienced at the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989.

Decades of isolation were hard on the Burmese, but being that far off the beaten path resulted in a wondrous land that changed little throughout the 20th century. A beautiful, traditional culture remains virtually untouched by modern influences.

In this new era of globalization, Myanmar's canvas will soon change dramatically, as investors and tourists descend on the country to behold its exquisite temples, untouched islands and rural countryside, meeting some of the world's most welcoming people. Seize the moment and plan your journey today.

Join Andrew Harper's exclusive 15-day journey to Myanmar in October 2012. The trip features Myanmar's classic sights, some hidden jewels, and stays at fabulously restored colonial villas and gorgeous boutique hotels. Space is extremely limited.
